P.S. Thanks for letting me cheat off of you in history.

John,
 I've been buggin
 you all year on how the surf is while
 I can't even sit on a

Dedication—Theme

We dedicate the 1963 ANTHONIAN to Pope John XXIII and our Bishops participating in the Second Vatican Council. May they be successful in communicating to the world the principles of Catholic living.

In a year of outstanding advancements in the field of communication, the 1963 ANTHONIAN bases its theme upon the special faculty of COMMUNICATION IN OUR STUDENT LIFE. Reflecting upon our lives, we perceive communication in its every facet.

There is the flow of ideas transmitted from teacher to student in the scholastic field. There is the body of manners and cherished traditions imparted at assemblies and activities. There is the grandness and greatness of school spirit communicated in every single area of school life.

Communication in our student life will help us to meet the challenge and demand of the future.

Vice-prefect Rosemarie Spitt and Prefect Betty Semmer (lower left) reorganize the file at the end of the school year

The Sodality of Our Lady has for its primary purpose the furthering of devotion to its patroness our Blessed Mother. Seven committees comprise the Sodality — the Library Committee, Catechetic Committee, Publicity Committee, Apostolic Committee, Mission Committee, and Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior-Senior Candidates Committees. These committees, through a variety of Catholic Action in the "homefront and apostolic work," carry out the Sodality's ultimate pur pose

Once a month the Sodality hosts a district meeting in the parish cafeteria. Topics of current interest to Sodality members are reviewed through group discussion and secretarial reports. Members from each committee faithfully attend the Sodality Forum in Los Angeles. The peak in the activity calendar is the annual Mary's Day organized by Sodality leaders. Under the guidance of their head moderator Sister M. Dolores, I.H.M., and six committee moderators — Sister Eymard, I.H.M., Sister Jeannine, I.H.M., Sister Berta Alicia, I.H.M., Sister Rose de Lima, I.H.M., Sister Nivarte, I.H.M., and Sister Stephano, I.H.M., — the girls become strong Catholic leaders, spiritually equipped to spread the leaven of Christ and in the future to become zealous parishioners.

Anthonian Staff

Cora Gearhart, Fran Olson, and Nick Andrade discuss plans for senior class layouts.

Old annuals are explored by Doris Supanheck, Carole Anne Ager, and Ray Hebeck to acquire new and interesting ideas for the year book.

Judy Water and Karen Mier file pictures for future bulletin board use.

In order to get the annual out on time, Bob Boydston, Theora Barnes, and Pam Slater give the typewriter a workout.

Seeing stories to enter the page are Valerie Clark, Art Van der Linden, Ronnie Vestrum and Jay P. Baker.

The two editors, Connie Martin and Dennis Dehhausen, examine the sample cover of the '63 annual.

Under the direction of their choral director, Sister Mary Grace, I.H.M., the members of the Glee Club achieve their goal of giving glory to God and developing themselves and their talents culturally, as well as giving pleasure to others.

In giving glory to God, the girls actively participate in the Liturgy of the Church by singing High Masses, Requiems, and motets at a low Mass each Sunday. The highlight of the Glee schedule is the singing during Holy Week, especially the "Seven Last Words" on Good Friday

Glee officers Frances Campbell, vice-president, Sandy Cutuli, secretary-treasurer, Cathy Burns, president, and director Sister Mary Grace listen to Glee Club accompanist, Marilyn Mustetto.

Special occasions for the cultural development of the girls include the Regional Festival and the Massed Concert held at the Shrine Auditorium.

Besides participating in these joint festivals with other schools, the girls entertain others by presenting a Christmas Concert, and a Spring Concert in May.

At the end of the year, the girls are rewarded for their generosity and perseverance at the annual Glee Club Banquet. At this event the girls can relax after a long year, look back at all the fun it's been, and look forward to the bigger and better things the next year will bring.

SEASON SURVEY

This year was supposed to be a building season at S.A., but someone forgot to tell the team this and they came up with a very exciting season of football.

Though they lacked overall size and experience they made up for it in speed, determination and all out hustle. Although the record which was 5-4 wasn't very exciting in itself, the spirit was terrific.

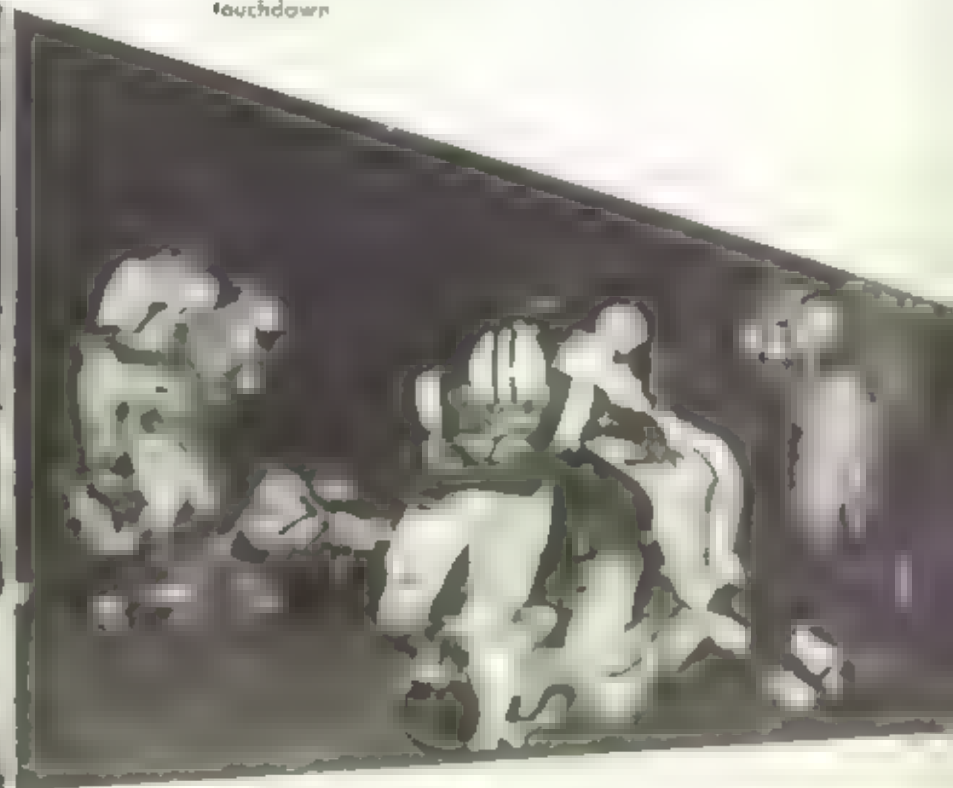

Individual stars were plentiful and 29 men lettered. Just to name a few stars: Tony VanCoutren (who led the city in rushing), Tommy Arboit (who was second to Tony for the city), and Jerry Jenson (who managed to gain over 400 yds.), were the offensive stars. On defense: Chuck Merino, Tony VanCoutren, and Tony Terry deserve recognition while Jim Graves, Jim Homan, Sam Briglio, and Dave Evans made up the heart of our line.

History will remember the 1962 season as being not as much as it could have been but much more than it was expected to be.

where will tomorrow's dreamworld be?

Not many years ago, the individual's world was small indeed. He and even more so, she — was confined to the limits of a neighborhood, or a town, or a farm. But not today. Hawaii, once a far off island of dreams, is just a "hop" away. Europe is a little further. Today's young people are going places — and dreaming about weekends on the moon. What distant worlds, we wonder, will tomorrow's young people dream about?

WHERE DO YOU GO FROM HERE?

is college on the horizon, or are you contemplating a career?

Whichever it is, appearances are important . . . while 'clothes don't make the man or woman, they do create first impressions. Why not check with Buffums' Varsity Shop, if you're a man about business or Buffums' Young California Shop if you are a college or career gal . . . in either case, a favorable first impression is assured!

We'd like to see you!

Official Photographer for the 1963 Anthonian Annual

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The 1963 Anthonian wishes to thank:

Monsignor Dolan, our pastor

Sister Marie Therese, I.H.M. and members of the girls' faculty

Brother John Anthony, C.S.C. and members of the boys' faculty

Sister Mary Bartholomew, I.H.M., and her business staff.

Mr. Morris Adger and Morris Studio (official photographer)

Alston Studio (underclassmen photographer)

Mr. Karl Mangoian (journalism pictures)

Mr. James Powell (Mirro-Graphic Yearbooks)

All staff members and all those who in any way have contributed to the success of the 1963 Anthonian

Our very special thanks to our moderators Brother Marco, C.S.C. and Sister Rose de Lima, I.H.M. Without their generous time and patience this yearbook would never have been completed.
